

Americans need Satellite Radio. Many of us travel often for business and can not be watching a television and do not like the constant commercials, foul language-racist DJ's, and old weather and traffic information. I have paid for this type of service and am enjoying all the benefits that Satellite Radio has brought to me.

For those who stay home for whatever reason, there is television and commercial radio to listen to. For me, it is XM Satellite Radio.